

ARGENTINA

Image by Wolverine_01

Writing Modernity Across the Atlantic

Engage with works by three authors -- Ramón Gómez de la Serna, Jorge Luis Borges, and Julio Cortázar -- whose writing transformed modern, twentieth-century literature. Visit historical landmarks and cultural sites related to their lives and work. Your experience is enhanced by living with an Argentine host family, creating a truly immersive experience and an offering the opportunity to begin learning or to hone your Spanish speaking skills. Open to all majors! Visit goabroad.csusb.edu for the program itinerary and additional information.

Program Leader: Dr. Arturo Fernández-Gibert | Professor, Department of World Languages and Literatures

Program Fee:

$2200 | Includes international travel insurance, accommodations, most breakfasts and dinners, and tickets, fees, and transportation for all scheduled activities. Program fee does not include airfare or CSUSB tuition. Price reflects Presidential International Education Award and IRA sponsorship. Program fee increases by $800 - $1300 for students ineligible for these discounts. Visit the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships (UH-150) to understand Summer Pell, SUG, and federal loan options to help finance your participation in this program. If you are Pell-eligible, consider applying for a $5000 Gilman Scholarship (deadline in March).

Course(s):

Earn 3 units of credit for SPAN 3900 (GE C4 / UD-3, DI, G, WI). SPAN 5507 and 5557 options also available. Honors College students can earn credit for HON 3100 or 3300.

Travel Dates:

6/14/2026 - 7/3/2026 (20 days) | Summer Session 1

Apply Today!

Application deadline Feb 15th. Apply at goabroad.csusb.edu. Spots limited and first-come, first-served. Early applications are encouraged.

