SAMPLE DESCRIPTIONS:

High Level of Independence: The itinerary has several free mornings or afternoons or may have a full day of unstructured time.

- Free time may include mealtimes or scheduled free time.
- There are opportunities to explore certain locations on their own.
- This program is recommended for participants with travel experience or for those interested in a guided experience with a high level of independence.

Moderate Level of Independence: The itinerary has some free mornings or afternoons built into the schedule.

- Free time may include mealtimes or scheduled free time.
- Free time may include optional activities. Participants can do these on their own or in small groups.
- This program is recommended for a highly diverse group of participants with varying degrees of travel experience.

Low Level of Independence: The itinerary has little free time for participants to explore on their own.

- Participants are always with a Program Leader, instructors, or program staff.
- Free time may only be in the evenings in and around mealtimes or the accommodations.
- This program is a good option for first-time travelers.
