

SUM ARAB 101: Summer Arabic I Syllabus

Credit Hours: 6 credit hours

Contact Hours: 95

Course Duration: 1 Summer Term (4 weeks)

All Program Locations and Virtual Programs

Important note: this is a real syllabus for this course, presented primarily in English for administrative purposes and with the course schedule showing coverage during an average summer term. Student placement in an Arabic level is determined by a written assessment prior to arrival, an OPI-style assessment during onsite Orientation, and consideration of prior study. The syllabus learners receive onsite consists of a summer term-specific course schedule presented in Arabic with a detailed, daily listing of in-class activities and homework assignments.

Course Description

This course begins by introducing the Arabic alphabet, sound system forms, and critical cultural concepts. Learners practice and produce both the alphabet and sound system and begin developing Arabic vocabulary and phraseology via specific structures presented in the textbook while being introduced to foundational grammatical structures and concepts. The primary textbook is supplemented with other level-appropriate materials, including those developed for the local context. Exercises and the activities are task-based and student-centered. The course covers the material in Alif Baa and Al-Kitaab, Part One, Third Edition, Chapters 1-2, as well as local materials and materials developed by instructors.

Attendance and Engagement

Learners are expected to attend all regularly scheduled classes and come prepared to participate fully in class activities. Learners are further expected to be on time for all classes. Arriving late for class is disrespectful of both the instructor and fellow learners. Please refer to the Amideast Attendance policy for more information.

Assignments

There will be daily assignments due at the beginning of class on the day assigned by the instructor. Late homework assignments may be checked by the instructor but will not be given any credit. Learners are encouraged to study and work on homework assignments together. Learners should follow up on any instructor comments on the homework. It is the learners' responsibility to come to office hours to see their instructors when questions arise.

Quizzes and Midterm

There will be two quizzes, 20 minutes each, plus a midterm exam.

Final Written Exam: Day 20

The final examination will cover all material studied during the term. It will test reading, grammar, writing, and listening skills.
